

Paying for school with
FREE MONEY

Scholarships, student awards and bursaries
are the best way to reduce tuition costs

FREE MONEY

Ditch the stereotype

You don't have to be top of the class or the star quarterback in order to qualify for scholarship money. There is a wide range of opportunities out there, so don't let old stereotypes discourage you from applying.

FREE MONEY

SCHOLARSHIP TIP:

Expand your search

Free money can come from a variety of government, non-profit or private sources. Your employer, your parents' employers, professional associations, financial institutions and service clubs may also provide funding.

FREE MONEY

Small sums add up quickly

While it's tempting to save your efforts for the biggest award amounts, remember that small wins add up quickly. Smaller awards don't tend to attract as many applicants, which increases your odds of winning.